F Types of Contributions and Contribution Limits

- You may elect to contribute to the CRSP on a pre-tax basis or after-tax Roth basis (or combination of pre-tax and Roth) up to the annual maximum allowed under the Internal Revenue Code. For the 2022 calendar year, the annual deferral maximum is $20,500 or 100% of your base salary, whichever is less.
  - If you will be age 50 or older during the calendar year, you may elect an additional Catch-up contribution amount. For the 2022 calendar year, the maximum Age 50 Catch-up amount is $6,500.
  - For more information on Catch-up contributions, visit our website at ConcordiaPlans.org/CRSP.
- This Salary Deferral Agreement is a written agreement between you and your employer whereby you direct your employer to reduce your pay by a specific percentage or dollar amount. Your employer then remits your contributions for allocation to your CRSP account. You may change or cancel the amount of your salary deferral contributions at any time as allowed under the terms of the CRSP. Your current Salary Deferral Agreement will remain in effect until you notify your employer otherwise.
- How much should you contribute? The answer depends on your current financial situation, and you may want to speak with a Fidelity Financial Guidance Counselor or other trusted financial professional to take into consideration your entire profile. As a general guideline, it is recommended to have a combined (your contributions plus any employer contributions) retirement savings rate of 15% of pay. But keep in mind, even small amounts add up over time.
- Salary deferral contributions to the CRSP are limited to your taxable income, which does not include housing allowance. Electing to contribute a percentage of your salary (rather than a certain dollar amount per pay period) is an easy way to make sure your savings rate for retirement stays in step with your salary.

G Information for Employer Representatives

- As an employer, it is important to review this Salary Deferral Agreement carefully and take the necessary action for IRS and Plan Compliance, and to also understand the payroll deduction requirements of offering a retirement savings plan with pre-tax and after-tax Roth salary deferral contributions.
- Retain this document for your records. Concordia Plan Services does not need a copy of this Salary Deferral Agreement. Completion of this form will not implement the remittance of contributions. For assistance on remitting contributions, please contact Concordia Plan Services.
